WOMAN'S NECKWEAR.

The Newest Collars, Collar Bands, Frills, Tucks and Ties.

Fashion in collar bands and their decoration still plays an important part in the finish of our costumes, and while they are not so elaborately trimmed as they were a frill of some sort, and above all the touch of white, is a positive necessity for the success of a fashionable gown. A short ruche, wider at the back than at the sides, appears on all the half dressy gowns, and this is made of lace or net in any of the bright colors. Deep cream or white is the most becoming, and the net is doubled and plaited in box plaits, but all these ruches are less full than they were and not so wide. A double ruche of black net and an inner one of white lace is very effective on some gowns. These little frills are shown in the shops made of chiffon net and lace all plaited into a band ready to baste inside the collar. In addition to the foregoing a writer in the New York Sun furnishes the following hints:

Loops of ribbon are still used at the back of dressy gowns, with the lace ruche falling between, and one pretty neck finish is two quarters of a yard lengths of four inch black satin ribbon cut with slanting ends and plaited on one edge in a small double box plait, forming two little frills meeting in the back, and the lace, which begins narrowly at the sides, falls over these. The tucked collar bands are very pretty with simply the lace ruche in the edge, and the knot effect in front is another fancy this season which is very pretty on some gowns.

Linen collars are still worn with shirt waists, but the stock collar of silk, with a narrow turnover collar of linen, is by far the most fashionable. This sort of finish is seen on almost every bodice intended especially for morning wear.

The narrow linen collar comes in great variety, plain, hemstitched and with tiny insertions in lines of embroidery a little way from the edge and trimmed with lace. Then there are various shapes in linen lawn with insertions and edgings of lace and embroidered edges as well. Stocks made of the silk like the bodice tied in a soft bow with hemstitched ends in front and a narrow linen collar turned over the edge are in excellent taste as well as good style. Ribbon is used for stocks, with the order of last season reversed and the bow tied in front, and the same narrow linen collar is the finish, with narrow cuffs to match.

Asparagus With Eggs.

Asparagus with eggs is an attractive combination devised by some culinary genius of name unknown. Boil a bunch of asparagus 20 minutes. Cut off the tender tops and lay in a deep plate, buttering, salting and peppering well. Beat 4 eggs just enough to break up the yolks, add a tablespoonful of melted butter, with pepper and salt, and pour upon the asparagus. Bake 8 minutes in a quick oven and serve immediately.

Strawberry Float.

Put four even tablespoonfuls of corn starch moistened into a saucepan, add one pint of boiling water. Stir over the fire for just a minute. Take from the fire and stir in one pint of cold strawberries. Turn into a glass dish and stand away to cool. Serve ice cold with cream. Oranges or peaches may be substituted for the strawberries. Then you would have an orange or peach float.

Buggies and Phaetons.

Gus Schuman begs to inform the public that he has on hand a fine new line of Surreys, Buggies, Phaetons, Road Wagons and Carts; Double and Single Buggy, Express and Hack Harness made especially for the Hawaiian trade. These goods are now on exhibition at the Club Stables.
